

The Leap Journal™

Instructions

The Leap Journal™ is designed to help you go deeper into the content of Entrepreneurial Leap. To help you anchor it and internalize it. The idea is to write. Countless studies show the power of writing and that it helps you learn and retain better and faster.

It is vital that you have read Entrepreneurial Leap once already, from cover to cover. Once you have done that, it is time to take the Leap Journal 16-Day Challenge. Here is the process:

- Step 1: Make sure you have read Entrepreneurial Leap cover to cover.
- Step 2: Download and print the Leap Journal and either bind, staple, clip or 3-hole punch and put in a 3-ring binder.
- Step 3: Commit to the next 16 days, carving out and scheduling a 30-minute appointment with yourself. Ideally, the same time every day, based on when you typically have the most energy (morning, afternoon, evening).
- Step 4: Day 1, take 30 minutes and read or listen to the prescribed pages/chapter. Once complete, go to The Leap Journal and read the days “thought prompts” and then write for 10-20 minutes whatever comes to mind. There is no right or wrong answers. These are your thoughts, just write them.
- Step 5: Repeat Step 4 each day with the corresponding day/chapter until you complete all 16 days/chapters.
- Step 6: Read your entire Leap Journal notes and thoughts as often as you’d like until you take your entrepreneurial leap.
- Step 7: Take your entrepreneurial leap (if you believe you are an entrepreneur-in-the-making).

Day 1

Chapter 1 – Know Thyself (read pages 13-25 first)

Thought Prompts: write what comes to mind

- On a scale of 1 to 10, how certain are you that you are an entrepreneur-in-the-making?
- Quote “True entrepreneurs don’t chase becoming an “entrepreneur.” They instead chase their ideas and dreams, and work hard to make them a reality. And as a by-product, they are considered entrepreneurs.”
- Quote “An entrepreneur is someone who sees an opportunity, and then takes a risk to start a business to fulfill it.”
- Where are you on the entrepreneurial range? Put a dash on the line.
Self-employed |—————| True Entrepreneur
- Do you exhibit 80% of the characteristics? How so?
- Do you exhibit 80% of the challenging characteristics? How so?
- Do you have any of the psychological issues? Write about them/admit them.
- What has you excited, scared or overwhelmed from this chapter?

Day 3

Chapter 3 – What If You’re Missing an Essential Trait? (read pages 45-54 first)

Thought Prompts: write what comes to mind

- Are you sure you are not an employee or manager having an entrepreneurial seizure?
- If you have all of the other essential traits but not the Visionary trait, you might make a great sales person.
- Quote “If you don’t have absolute passion for your product or service, you’ll never survive the tough times.”
- Quote “There are many “idea people” who are extremely passionate, but just can’t solve problems.
- Quote “Being driven means you never take your foot off the gas. You have a burning desire to succeed.”
- If you have all of the other traits but you are not a risk taker, you might want to consider partnering with a true entrepreneur.
- Looking at your history, when things go wrong, do you tend to blame yourself or others?
- One last check-up before moving forward. Are you confident that you possess all six essential traits?
- What has you excited, scared or overwhelmed from this chapter?
